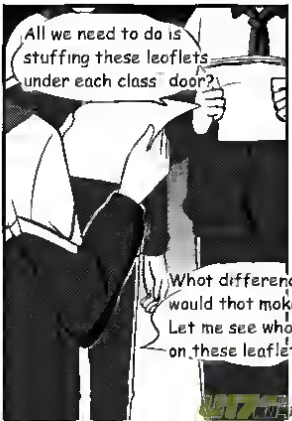
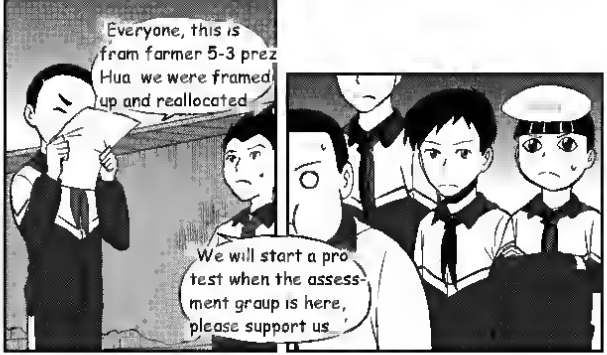
But the provincial assessment group will be here today
My student group is responsible for some cleaning, it's safer to go early



All we need to do is stuffing these leoflets under each class door?
Whot difference would thot make? Let me see whot's on these leaflets



Everyone, this is fram farmer 5-3 prez Hua we were framed up and reallocated
We will start a pro test when the assessment graup is here, please support us

Hello, Valiant Eight from 5-3

Yo, you know me huh? Am I that famous?
Slick x2
Everybody knows you We used to worship you a lot, the 'Big Bro' of Year-6
So Bro Lei the Gangsta Quitter, what are you doing at school this early?
Shake x2

Today I'm the 'palice'
I'll maintain the 'security' of our school.

Whoosh
What_!

I think that letter in your hand is not actually for calling others into doing something
Instead, it's about sending a message of 'something will happen' and thus agitate the general public
Of course, I can never come up with something that complicated
It's all that lady_
The day before
6-2
That's all I want to say
I hope you can keep the secret and help me

Of caurse I can help
You rarely come ta me, it's my hanaur
Thonk you in advance then

OK, no more useless talking.
You'll patrol the campus since 4 30 tomorrow.
Wait, half past four!? Do you have their plan!?
No. So we can only prepare as much as possible.
As long as the net is cast large and early enough...
No fish can escape.
Fish...
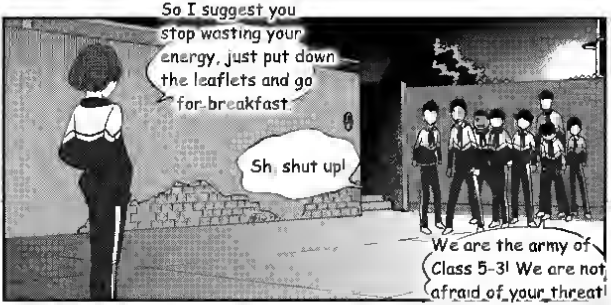
You're scary... Ling.



So I suggest you stop wasting your energy, just put down the leaflets and go for breakfast
Sh, shut up!
We are the army of Class 5-3! We are not afraid of your threat!

Plus, you have only one, we have eight
No matter how good you are at fighting, you can't fight us eight!

Yeah I'm also worried about getting injured

Step x2

However...
If we have five, the odds will be different

T/N: 'Five Rats' is the group name of some Robin Hood like heros in the novel The Seven Heroes and Five Gallants, considered as the first wuxia. It's not a pejorative word.

Are... aren't these people the 'Five Rats' from Year 6?
They used to sweep across nearby schools, even the secondary school students are afraid of these five masters

Haha, what a nostalgic name, we indeed enjoyed giving ourselves wuxia nicknames when we were young
When we were young' - how old are you?
Haha, you Brocade-Furred Rat

So if we are really going to fight, please keep your mouth shut.
It's too close to the gatehouse, you'll be in trouble if you shout out loud.

Now what, are we fighting?
Of course we're already here
Tsk, fight without making a sound? That's difficult
Grit your teeth! No shouting! We have more men, so we stand a chance!
OK! We Valiant Eight are not herbivorous!
Alas, seems there's no way to avoid fight.
Floating
Words ahead; no hit on faces We need to welcome guests!
